ClearView announces key senior management appointments

ClearView Wealth Limited (ASX: CVW) has announced key senior management appointments, as part of a business realignment.

Gerard Kerr has been appointed to the newly-created position of General Manager, Life Insurance.

Mr Kerr will join ClearView in February 2021 from Zurich Financial Services Australia, where he has held the role of Head of Group Insurance, Life and Investments since July 2019, following Zurich's acquisition of OnePath.

Prior to that, he held senior positions at OnePath / ANZ Wealth including Head of Life from 2013 to June 2019.

Deborah Lowe, currently General Manager, People and Operations at ClearView, has been appointed to the newly-created position of General Manager, Wealth Management and Chief Human Resources Officer.

Deborah joined ClearView in 2013 and has played a pivotal role in shaping the direction of the Group's HR, operations and technology strategy. Her financial services experience includes senior asset management roles at both the Commonwealth Bank and Barclays Global Investors.

Nadine Gooderick has been appointed to the newly-created position of General Manager, Transformation, effective 2 November 2020.

Prior to joining ClearView, Nadine spent 22 years at Reinsurance Group of America (RGA) in various international roles including the last eight years as Chief Operating Officer of RGA Australia with responsibility for transformational strategy, claims management and underwriting strategy.

During her time at RGA Australia, Nadine managed a number of large, international projects and led a diverse team across different functions and markets.

Commenting on the changes, ClearView Managing Director Simon Swanson said: "These appointments are part of a business realignment that will enable us to better execute our reinvigorated strategy and continue growing in a challenging, rapidly changing environment".

There are no other changes to the senior management team.
